Belmore Basin Jazz Band - Saturday, 3rd February

A popular local sextet, still entertaining their many followers after 30 years of playing their mainstream, classic jazz. The Band - Mick Berghuis (Leader, Reeds, Vocals), John Dent (Drums), Bill Williamson (Piano), Wal Gregory (Trombone, Vocals), Alan Cantwell (Trumpet), Michael Barkl (Bass).

Laney & Friends - Saturday, 10th February

From jazz & blues to folk, from gospel to rock "Laney"s voice can be powerful, tender, melodic and passionate. Laney brings together her band of talented musicians to perform jazz standards with her accomplished musical group. The band – Laney Henry (band leader/vocals), Ian McClintock (guitar/vocals), Stephen Henry (drums/vocals), Andrew Stratford (keyboards) and Carlo Mesinez (bass).

Wollongong Conservatorium Jazz Orchestra - Saturday, 17th February

The band is getting ready for an overseas tour to California in April where they will play in Los Angeles, San Francisco and to compete in the Reno International Jazz Festival and Competition. The band will be super hot! Eric Dunan will also bring to the pub, the Wollongong Conservatorium Latin

Jazz Ensemble which is under the new leadership of Des Cannings from South Coast Big Band fame.

Bonnie Kay & The Bonafides - Saturday, 24th February

Bonnie Kay & The Bonafides will bring a unique sort of soulful, sassy package of roots & blues, adding additional elements of jazz, soul & funk, with indescribable elements of texture & colour, sometimes smooth & jazzy, sometimes gritty & raw. Be ready for a foot stomping, hollering hootenanny. Bonnie Kay is a contemporary American singer/ songwriter from Philly who uses acoustic, fingerpicking slide guitar techniques, plus a voice reminiscent of Bonnie Raitt. Her Bonafide companions are: Wayne Rigby on sax & flute, Catherine Holden on double bass, Kathryn O'Connor on drums and Kaki Suzuki on trombone.
